Additional Provider Relief Fund Payments to Be Available Due to COVID-19 Pandemic

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) has announced an additional round of Provider Relief Fund (PRF) payments will be available to qualified providers for health care-related expenses or lost revenues due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. This Phase 4 of the PRF will be available to providers who can document revenue loss and expenses associated with the pandemic from July 1, 2020, to March 31, 2021.

Applications will be accepted starting September 29, 2021. For more information and details, please go to the Health Resources & Services Administration website at: <https://www.hrsa.gov/provider-relief/future-payments>
